

Canine Communication and Body Language (E-Learning)

At a glance...

E-Learning

Duration Notes:	This course takes roughly 3+ hours to complete and is followed by a short assessment leading to a certificate.
Delivery Method:	E-learning
Prerequisites:	Internet access through PC, laptop or tablet

Introduction

This E-learning course is about understanding canine communication and using it to prevent conflict.

Overview in brief

Click here to enrol on this course

Who should attend?

It is for dog owners, dog-walkers and other professionals who work with dogs.

What will be covered?

This E-learning course is about understanding canine communication and using it to prevent conflict.

It covers legislation and industry standards for canine behaviourists, Animal training & learning, understanding & interpreting canine communication and preventing & dealing with conflict.

Click here to enrol on this course

