

Climate Action 101

At a glance...

Assessed Customised Provision

Delivery Method:	Online
Recognised by:	Lantra Awards

Introduction

Upskill your employees in Climate Action and make a difference to the environment, your bottom line, and employee satisfaction with our new, fully accredited programme.

Overview in brief

This Lantra-accredited Customised Award is exclusively developed and delivered by a Lantra-approved Training Provider, who meets our quality standards. The course is specifically tailored to meet learners' needs. For further details about the course content and delivery locations, please contact the Training Provider using the details provided below.

The minimum age to undertake this course is 16.

A guide to work life balance and how to use nature's toolkit to improve your time at work: for individuals, educators and employers

The finer details

A minimum of 12 participants, maximum of 15.

- 5 x 2 hour online sessions
- 2 x 2 hour ecologist site-visits to determine what climate actions can be taken on the ground by course participants

- A suite of 25 self-directed eLearning Tools for participants to further extend their learning

Who should attend?

Open to everyone

What will be covered?

- Discover the factors that influence climate change
- Learn what the terms around climate action mean
- Explore how land is used in Ireland
- Find out about our main environmental pollutants
- Uncover Ireland's precious habitats and water catchments
- Follow the carbon cycle and learn to measure your footprint Investigate Ireland's carbon sinks
- Delve into Irish biodiversity and learn to identify trees, birds, bees and butterflies
- Follow the river's journey from source to sea
- Gain practical skills to fight climate change such as tree planting, water conservation, meadow management, seed saving
- Learn to measure and monitor water quality in your local river or stream
- Develop a Climate Action Plan for your home, business or club

