

Sports Turf Leadership and Management: Effective Communication and Decision Making

At a glance...

Customised Provision

Delivery Method: Classroom

Introduction

An ideal introduction or refresher for:

- Evaluating and validating sports turf information Data collection
- Decision making
- Developing records and communicating with key stakeholders in sports turf business

Overview in brief

This course is aimed at individuals that either work or aspire to work in sports turf management. The course is an ideal introduction and/or refresher training to reinforce good practices for evaluating and validating information; decision making, developing essential records and communicating effectively with key stakeholders involved in sports turf business.

Who should attend?

The typical learner will be working towards or currently in a supervisory or management position. This course is also ideal supplementary training for Advanced Apprentices of sports turf.

The entry requirements are for Learners to have or be working towards a level 3 qualification. All applicants previous qualifications and experience will be reviewed to ensure appropriateness of the course.

- Trainee Golf Course Managers
- Trainee Sports Turf Managers
- Golf Course Managers
- Deputy Golf Course Managers

- Head Greenkeepers
- Deputy Head Greenkeepers
- Assistant Sports Turf Operatives/grounds people
- Assistant Greenkeepers
- Assistant Sports Turf Operatives/grounds people
- Assistant Greenkeepers
- Level 3 Apprentices of golf or sports turf
- Level 3 sports turf trainees
- Level 2 sports turf and greenkeeper apprentices

What will be covered?

Evaluate information for valid decision making

Develop policy documents for managing, monitoring and reviewing sports turf facilities

Communicate effectively with sports turf-related business stakeholders (e.g. committees, directors, general managers etc)

