

Risk Assessments within Sports Turf, Grounds and Estates Management

At a glance...

Training (Only)

Delivery Method: Training only

Introduction

This course introduces risk assessments and is suitable for all those working in the sports turf, grounds and estates management sectors. It covers the legal requirements, identifying risks, and the things individuals need to think about and do when undertaking risk assessments in the workplace.

The finer details

It aims to demystify risk assessments and build confidence in their use.

By the end of the course learners will be able to;

- Understand the legal requirements for Risk Assessments
- Understand what Risk Assessments are, what they do, and the different types of Risk Assessments
- Understand the HSE 5-step approach to producing a Risk Assessment
- Identify hazards in the workplace
- Identify who may be harmed and how
- Evaluate risk and consider control measures
- Record findings and address them
- Understand when to review and update Risk Assessments
- Understand Safe Methods of Work
- Be able to produce a relevant Risk Assessment and Safe Method of Work for a task in their own workplace

Who should attend?

Teams employed in sports turf, grounds and estates management.

Individuals embarking on a career in these areas.

Individuals considering or moving into a supervisory role.

What will be covered?

This course is industry-specific and delivered by instructors with significant experience in the sector. By the end of the course, learners will know how to put their learning into practice in their own workplace.

